San Francisco State University
Fall 2018 Student Population
Current Enrollment 29,586 Students

IR
Office of Institutional Research

29,465 30,256 29,045 29,607 29,586
Fall 2014 Fall 2016 Fall 2015 Fall 2017 Fall 2018

Over the past five years, the student headcount remained relatively stable, while the Full-time Equivalent (FTE) enrollment peaked in fall 2018.

F T E

24,499 24,850 24,108 24,888 25,094

He a d c o u n t

24,499 24,850 24,108 24,888 25,094

Sex
Females continue to outnumber males by approximately 14% in fall 2018.

Ethnicity
In fall 2018, over half the students enrolled are either Hispanic/Latino or Asian.

Residence at Time of Application
The majority of our students come from the Bay Area (57%). However, San Francisco State continues to attract students from Southern California and San Diego (23%).

New Student Headcount

Avg. Units Enrolled

Status
Class Level
81%
Full-Time
19%
Part-Time
First Generation
Pell Eligibility
The majority of San Francisco State students are full-time (81%). A large percentage of undergraduate students are pell-eligible (42%) and many of our first-time freshmen are first generation (37%).

Percentage of Pell-Eligible Undergraduate Students
Percentage of First Generation First-Time Freshmen

Enrollment by College
The student enrollment in Science & Engineering majors has steadily increased over the past five years.

Top 10 Undergraduate Majors
Business Administration continues to be the largest undergraduate major by a large margin.

First-Time, Full-Time Freshmen 1-Year Continuation Rates
First-time, full-time freshmen 1-year continuation rates have remained roughly static, but have dipped slightly in recent years.

First-Time, Full-Time Freshmen 4- and 6-Year Graduation Rates
First-time, full-time freshmen 4- and 6-year graduation rates have steadily increased.

Office of Institutional Research December 2018