

National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE)

90%

of first-years reported feeling comfortable being themselves at SF State.

81%

of seniors frequently had discussions with people from a different race or ethnicity.

77%

of first-years & seniors tried to better understand someone else's views by imagining how the issue looks from their perspective.

of first-years & seniors rated their overall SF State experience as "good" or "excellent."

"One thing I wouldn't change is the diversity. Considering SFSU is the only campus with a College of Ethnic Studies, this is what makes the campus so iconic and special. As a person of color, I've never felt like I belonged the most anywhere until I attended SF State."

Response rates: First-Years - 35%, Seniors - 34%
